Agenda –

- Computing pupil voice
- Virtual Tour
- Think you know
- National Online Safety Website

Minutes –

- Mrs Price welcomed the Online Safety Committee
- Mrs Price talked about new members and said badges need to be made for the new members
- All children are excited for Bletchley Park. Mrs Price said that some of some council may be invited.
- Mrs Price talked to the pupils about computing lessons and looked at their books. Mrs talked about what they remembered and looked through their books. Pupils could recall the facts about keeping safe online, such as don't trust people you don't know, don't give your name to anyone, don't open links as it might be virus.
- All pupils talked having a tour on the school website virtually, pupils liked this idea and said that some of them would like to be on the film or narrate it.
- As usual all information is given out from National Online Safety
- Pupils watched a video from the 'think you know website' reminding them how to use the internet safely.

Any other business –

- None

Actions–

- Mrs Price to set up a virtual tour video school.

Next Meeting – Friday 24th May 2024
