Agenda –

- Golden Table
- Name Guinea Pigs – count vote
- Health and Safety Update – road safety
- Liz Bullock – local Councillor for Stretton

Minutes –

- Mrs Worth welcomed school council long with our visitor, Liz Bullock, who is a local councillor for the borough of Stretton.
- Liz Bullock spoke about her role as a local councillor and how she became a local councillor. JS (Health and Safety Rep) was very interested and asked questions about Liz's role.
- Mrs Worth explained that the golden table will be returning from lunch time today and so we have some new plates at cutlery that will be used on this table. School council members looked at the table decorations and were pleased.
- Mrs Worth explained that some signs have been ordered to place outside of school to remind parents and visitors of how to safely park.
- A vote has been taken on Reach More Parents to name the guinea pigs. The options were: Sugar & Spice, Harry & Meghan, Oreo & Biscoff, Salt and Pepper or Puddles and Muddles. School council counted up the vote together and the winning names, with 78 votes, were Oreo and Biscoff.
- School council delivered the news of the winning names to all classes around school.
