- The naming of the sensory area.
- Wheelchair swing.
- Rabbit Awareness Week

Minutes –

- Mrs Price showed the school council the sensory walk that had been made by Toyota students. They really enjoyed it and enjoyed playing on it.
- Mrs Price also looked at the new sensory Garden on the playground. School Council decided to call it 'Hunters Wood', which is an amalgamation Of Mrs Hunter and Miss Wood who run Forest School.
- School council chose some new equipment to play on outside as the exercise and sensory machine around the playground are popular, with pupils often having to wait. Mrs Price said some more equipment could be ordered.
- Pharrel now has his Health and safety badge and is actively involved in Health and Safety. A fire drill happened on Wednesday and this was successful with all pupils and staff responding well. practice happened and a 'pretend fire' was created by two school council members. Staff and pupils had to think about a different way to exit the building. Both staff and pupils really thought about this carefully. Everyone agreed that this was a good thing to do.
- Mrs Price told the school council that this week is Rabbit Awareness Week. Rabbits are one of the most neglected pets in the UK with many being left alone in hutches and not given the interaction and lifestyle that they require. Mrs Price talked to school council about rabbit welfare, Councillors were asked to share a colouring sheet with their class peers. Mrs Price said if anyone would like more Rabbit Welfare you can look at www.rspca.org.uk
