Minutes –

- Mrs Price welcomed school council. Some children have come to Mrs Price and said they want to join school council. Mrs Price has decided for the next two meetings if children want to attend then can to increase pupil voice. Next meeting pupils are going to bring their books to discuss what they are learning in different subjects.
- Pupils have given names for the Guinea Pigs, we have got Dasiy & Rosie, Dennis & Steph, Gemma & Adam, Sugar & Spice, Minnie & Clarabel, Elsa & Arna, Harry & Meghan, Orea & Biscoff, Fudge & Oreo, Princess & Donut. This will go to a school vote.
- JS (Health and Safety Rep) has inspected all the rocking chairs with Ian Spencer. Some chairs had 1 or 2 nails missing. So Mrs Price is going to make sure that she tells all staff to have a weekly check on all chairs in school.
- Mrs Price talked about what it means to talk about protected characteristics. Mrs Price explained that we have something in Britain called the equality Act, which means we are all equal and people cannot be unkind or unlawful to us about our age, disability, race, sex, amongst other areas. We talked about who are on school this act may support and how good it was.
- Mrs Price has asked Catherine Shackles to order the Knee pad and elbow pads. YD said that helmets need to be brought too. also need to be brought.
- JS stated that carrot club is not happening as the pupils don't want it. However we had a chat about a lunchtime Friday club. The council agreed that this was a good idea to have a club to reward good behaviour all week and have a Friday lunch with Mrs Price, Mrs Kobylanski or anyone else that the children would like. A name of the Tiny Golden table was
